

RECENT RESEARCH NEWS (2018)

2018 SEED GRANT AWARDEES

Dr. Hatem Elshabrawy earned a grant award for his proposal: Investigating the Role of PTP- ζ in Rheumatoid Arthritis.

Dr. Huyen Vu also earned a grant award for her proposal: The Public Perception of Pharmacists and Barriers to Utilizing Pharmacy Services.

2018 STUDENT POSTER AWARDEES

Three COP students won poster awards at the 2018 CNU Research Day: Translational Research Symposium in January.

First Prize: Ella Mokrushin (P2 Student). Title of Presentation: In vitro and ex vivo effects of silymarin fractions on pro-inflammatory cytokine secretion. Faculty Mentor is Dr. Leo Fitzpatrick.

Second Prize: Anhao Sam (P2 Student) and Katelyn Macias (P3 Student). Title of Presentation: The cellular location of the Nrdp1, an E3 ubiquitin ligase, differs in African American versus Caucasian American prostate cancer cells. Faculty Mentor is Dr. Ruth Vinall.